"I was surprised how quickly things turned around once I started working with Randstad RiseSmart. My Resume Writer pointed out some basic things that I had missed in writing my resume on my own—and I believe that the changes we made, along with the really specific job leads I received, led me to land the job I was looking for."

CHALLENGES

One year ago, Maegan began looking for a job. Tired of contract work, she was hoping to land a fulltime position; however, doing so proved difficult. While she did manage to secure a few interviews during the latter half of her search, none of the roles offered the kind of salaried work she was looking for.

SOLUTIONS

Maegan was offered Randstad RiseSmart Spotlight® to help her with her search. She started in June and immediately received help from an experienced Transition Coach, a resume rewrite from a Certified Professional Resume Writer, and targeted job leads both handpicked by a Job Concierge and intelligently ranked by the SmartMatch™ engine.

Maegan’s resume writer showed her areas for improvement that would drastically increase the chances of her resume rising to the top of the pile, and Maegan immediately began applying for relevant jobs using the Randstad RiseSmart platform.

RESULTS

In about one month, Maegan discovered a job at a company that fit all of her requirements using the SmartMatch™ engine, landed an interview—and started her first day of work only a few days later.
